

Cover Crop Workshop

When: April 1, 2014
Time: 9:00am-12:00pm (Lunch to follow)
Optional Field Tour after lunch
Where: Durand State Bank Community Room
1005 Cameron Drive
Durand, IL 61024

Please RSVP to the Winnebago Soil & Water Conservation District 815-965-2392 ext 3 (Dennis Anthony) or AgTech 815-541-6720 (Trevor Olson) by 3-25-14

- Learn how Cover Crops can increase your soil fertility and the health of your soil.
- Learn about different species of cover crops and where to place them.
- Learn how to incorporate Cover Crops into your forage system.
- Learn about the benefits of Plant Health in your Cropping and Forage systems.
- Learn from one of the Midwest's most renowned Cover Crop Specialists Dave Robison.

- Founding Member of the Midwest Cover Crop Council
- Co- Founder of the National Cool Season Grass Initiative
- Founder of Plantcovercrops.com
- Works extensively with University researchers at their testing sites
- Speaks across the country on the value of Cover Crops.

Sponsored By:

Winnebago County
Soil & Water
Conservation District

